I make up make face
Put my red dress on
I comb my hair, I paint my nails
The work is done
I'm feeling all right
Tonight you'll gonna stay with me

The clock strikes eight
I taste a nectarine
The doorbell rings, my heart beats
Like a rhythm-machine
I'm feeling all right
Tonight you'll gonna stay with me

They told us there's a heaven
We'll get it pirate-style
We will go to heaven
Lay your body by my side
Come on, babe!

Your eyes are dark
Your lips are red
Your smell is better than the Nectarine I had
I'm feeling all right
Tonight you'll gonna stay with me

You make me fly
You make me dive

I see the colours, feel the rhythm
Celebrate life
I'm feeling all right
Tonight you'll gonna stay with me

They told us there's a heaven
We'll get it pirate-style
We will go to heaven
Lay your body by my side
Come on, babe!
